

Beverly J. Robinson

February 15, 1954 - December 5, 2018

Beverly Joanne Robinson, age 64, was a loving daughter to Audrey and D-Robert Robinson Jr. Beverly was a sister to five siblings, an aunt to two nieces, and a friend to many acquaintances. She died peacefully in December 5th 2018. Born February 15th 1954 at Freeman Hospital, Washington D.C., she attended D.C. public school before soon graduating from Central Senior High, continuing her education at Maryland University College Park for two years. Beverly graduated from Martha Washington School of Nursing as a nursing assistant and worked at the National Lutheran Nursing Home for two more years before moving onward to Prince George's General Hospital; there she remained successfully for 23 years of her life before retiring at age 55. Beverly was an active member of the Pennsylvania Ave Seventh-Day Adventist church to which she served as a loyal deaconess in service and in other church duties. Beverly had a love for classical music, classic films, decorating and exercising. As a loving family member and friend, she gave her time and money to anyone in need and survived by extending her love to others. Her family pays this tribute to her, 'Beverly was the kindest, most loyal woman we've ever known. We are happy she can finally rest in paradise. She will surely be missed.'

“ Beverly had a genuine soul. Her personality was one that could not be imitated. I will forever remember the way she made me feel - always special and welcomed like a sister. In my mind she was my sister. Thank you Beverly for your love, for love is forever!
