

Charles Jackson

January 7, 1933 - August 3, 2019

Charles Jackson was born in Baltimore, Maryland on January 7, 1933 and transitioned to be with the Lord on Saturday, August 3, 2019.

Charles Jackson, affectionately known as "Mickey", was born to the late John Jackson and Beatrice Jackson of Baltimore, Maryland. Mickey attended and graduated from Carver Vocational High School. After graduating, Mickey began his baseball career at Westport Stadium, prior to traveling with the semi-professional baseball team for several years. He later enlisted into the United States Army in 1953, where he served honorably and received the National Defense Service Medal.

In 1971, Mickey met the love of his life, Mildred. This love lasted for 49 beautiful years.

Mickey was a man with a peaceful and loving spirit, who lived life on and in his purpose. He was a scholar of the bible, and was frequently asked to preach and teach bible study at Central Baptist and Community of Grace Churches. Mickey also loved sports and was a huge fan of his beloved Baltimore Orioles and Baltimore Ravens. A man of many talents, Mickey also loved to dance and won several dance competitions. When he wanted to relax, Mickey spent his days watching old western movies and spiritual television shows. He also loved his grandchildren, and often times, could be found teaching them messages from the bible and practicing boxing and baseball techniques.

Mickey was a devoted companion, father, grandfather, uncle and friend. He is preceded in death by his sister Dorothy Broadway, brother John "Jackie" Jackson (Iris) and son Michael Griffin. He leaves to cherish his memory: a life-long partner, Mildred Sparrow; his children, Dr. Vanessa L. Jackson, Craig D. Powell, Sr. (Teresa), Tony Sparrow, Antoinett C. Jackson and Lakaisha Jackson-Roberts; one son-in-law, Jaison Roberts; his sisters, Christina Rusk, Beverly English (Robert), and Barbara Walker; his brother, Wayne Jackson (Charlene); ten grandchildren, Ryan, Craig Jr. (Sharminique), Takeria, Ashley, Jaelen, Justin, Jewel, Jaiden, Jordan, and Jaya; and three great-grandchildren, Anthony "Chunk", Kiyana, and Mason; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends who he loved and cherished.

“ To family and friends:

Please accept my heartfelt condolences. I pray that God would comfort each of you during this time and that past memories will help to bring some joy to your hearts.

From many conversations over the years I came to realize that Charles had a great love for the Holy Bible.

And because of this he was greatly concerned for the spiritual well being of his family, friends and strangers. Truly, Charles was a ready messenger to share the story of God's love in regards to the sacrificial death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

And now this messenger has been called to his eternal home where there will be no more suffering, sorrow or death.

God states this wonderful truth:

"To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord."

My prayers are with you,

Doug
