

Lloyd Newton

October 11, 1941 - July 23, 2020

Lloyd S. Newton of Baltimore, Maryland, passed on from this life, peacefully in his sleep, on the morning of Thursday, July 23, 2020. He was in the care of hospice services at the Loch Raven VA Medical Center, after a courageous eleven year battle with cancer. He was 79.

He was born on October 11, 1941, in Baltimore, MD to, Lloyd Newton Sr. (Bronx, NY - deceased) and Fannie Moragne (Baltimore, MD - deceased).

Lloyd attended Robert Fulton Elementary, Booker T. Washington Junior High, and graduated high school from Baltimore City College in 1959. In high school, he was a track star who exceptionally contributed to the team's three straight Maryland State championships. He then went on to attend New York University, before transferring to Morgan State College in 1962. There, he became a distinguished member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. (PI Chapter), and was affectionately known as "The #1 Dog", reflecting his designation as the line's Captain. Lloyd graduated in 1966 with a Bachelor of Science in Psychology, and a minor in Military Science. Just one month later, he was commissioned as Second Lieutenant in the United States Army.

He was industrious, hardworking, entrepreneurial, and a forever learner.

He provided a wonderful life for his family and enjoyed many hobbies in his spare time. He found great joy in analyzing, debating, and writing algorithms for sports, challenging (and beating) anyone in a chess match, that dared to oppose him, making others laugh, sharing useless but wildly interesting facts and trivia, listening to classical music, studying his Native American ancestry by way of the Rappahannock tribe, reading, and — of course — watching the horse races at Pimlico Racetrack. Each evening, his favorite way to end the day, included holding Marlene's hand while they watched their favorite show together, Judge Judy.

He will be missed by a loving group of friends from high school, college, and beyond, but most of all, by his family. Lloyd leaves to mourn, the love of his life and long-time partner of 34 years, Marlene Hammond, whom he affectionately called "wifey"; 4 adult children, Dawn Newton, Angela Newton-Bingham; Guy Newton and Aiyana Newton, one brother, Craig Newton, two sisters, Dr. Helen Newton and Jacqueline Kowalsky; three grandchildren, Ashleigh (Bingham) Grant; Kendall and Grayson Newton; one great-granddaughter, Aubree Grant, and one great-grandson, on the way; one daughter-in-law, Lindsay Newton;

one future son-in-law, Pierre-Andre Donzier; a loving tribe of cousins, nieces, nephews, and numerous close friends that were like brothers to Lloyd. Lloyd's high school motto was, "Honor to he who earns it," and he has — unequivocally and with distinction — earned his honor.

“ My sincere condolences to the family. I started Morgan much later than Mr. Newton, but it's sad when our Morgan family circle is broken.

“ Hello family and friends,

Some of my early remembrances of Lloyd was when he came to visit our Dad in the Bronx. He was driving a 1964 Barracuda, it was very modern and slick! The back of the car came to a v and was all glass, that was really something. The cars in the early sixties were big, clunky, and round, so his car really stood out. He had on a uniform so he must have still been in the service. I remember feeling very proud of him, that he was my "big brother" with his shiney car when he came to pick my sister and me up from school.

With love,
Jacquie Newton-K.

“ I'm truly sorry I never had the opportunity to meet you face to face cousin Lloyd, but just as cousin Eric Blue we met through Ancestry.com probably 15 years ago or more. Lloyd and I spent many hours chatting and sharing family genealogy on our Newton line. Lloyd and I share the same great-grandparent(4th grands to me)Peter Newton and Eliza J Hackett-Newton. Lloyds great grandfather Oscar had a brother Frederick Newton(my 2nd grandfather).
Loved your spirit cousin! Rest now.

“ I first met Cousin Lloyd through ancestry.com doing genealogy and talking about the Newton Family of Richmond County, Va. Lloyd descends from Peter Newton and I from Peter's sister Lucinda Newton Blue. We would spend a few hours talking by phone. I personally met him around 2008 or 9 on a rainy Saturday in April while he was driving up 295 in Paulsboro, NJ at the truck stop before his final destination to the casino in Atlantic City. Rest well.

“ Hi Eric! Are you attending the service. Would love to meet you.

Angela Bingham - July 30, 2020 at 07:57 PM

“ Angela will not be attending. Would love to meet you and siblings.

Eric Blue - August 02, 2020 at 10:45 AM

“ Well I would love have a ZOOM or Bluejeans call soon with everyone. Hopefully you and I can coordinate something at month's end or in September.

Angela - August 03, 2020 at 09:40 AM

“ There will never be another person on Earth, like my Dad. I will always remember how much Dad loved his family, children, grandchildren & great grandchildren.

Angela Bingham - July 29, 2020 at 11:33 AM

“ Hi Angela and Family, I am so sorry I could not be with you today to celebrate the Home going Celebration of your Dad! I was a close friend of your grandmother, Fannie. We both agreed after tracing our families' trees, that we were truly related cousins via the Finney family from Onancock, Virginia! Your Dad and Uncle Craig were devoted to their Mom and she was crazy about them!! Looking at Lloyd's pictures (looking like his Mamma) gave me comfort that he is now with her celebrating!! Angela, I hope to meet you in person one day! I will be forever grateful that you contacted me about Lloyd's passing! Love, Phyllis Reese

Phyllis Reese - August 04, 2020 at 01:58 PM

“ Cousin Phyllis, I would love to meet you as well! I would love to try and set up a FaceTime call with everyone so we could at least meet over the computer screen. Thank you for your kind words and prayers.
