

Maycell Robinson

March 4, 1953 - January 24, 2020

Maycell Robinson, beloved daughter of Nashley and Ailene Robinson, was born on March 4, 1953 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was called home on Friday, January 24, 2020.

Maycell received her education in Baltimore City Public School System with a trade in sewing. She would later go on to receive a certificate from Bible College. In the years following, her focus shifted to nursing and she obtained GNA and CNA licensing. Maycell loved her career, went on to work for a variety of nursing homes, and provided private duty care. Every patient was like family to her and they were all that she would talk about.

Maycell had a strong faith and prayer was EVERYTHING. You could often find her in a prayer circle, teaching Sunday school or breaking down a bible scripture. She never left the house without her prayer rag and her oil. Maycell was the type to stop a stranger on the street and pray for them. She had a way with people.

Maycell was always the life of the party and one of the most down to earth people you could ever meet. She touched the lives of so many by always lending an ear, giving advice (solicited and unsolicited), and bringing her positive energy wherever she went. Her stories could make you laugh until you cried real tears and your stomach cramped; whether true or made up she always had a good one to tell. She was BEAUTIFUL and turned heads everywhere she went. She loved fashion, music, movies and dancing; she could cut a rug.

In 2002, she was diagnosed with an early onset of Alzheimer's. The family was told she would live two years at the max, based on her speed of deterioration. Look at God; he blessed us with a soldier. She fought that battle for almost 18 years. While her physical being will be missed, she remains in our hearts forevermore. Maycell is now resting in heaven with her parents and her sister.

She was preceded in death by: her parents Nashley and Ailene Robinson; and her sister Betty.

Those left to cherish her memory include her three children Andrea Robinson, Kevin Robinson and Tyra Boyd; one son in-law Jamal Boyd; nine grandchildren Richard Wilford, Dionta' Pressley, Dayshawn Pressley, Tionna Boyd, Yasmine Boyd, Jamal Boyd Jr., Asia Boyd, Mason Boyd and Kayson Carmon-Robinson; one sister Katherine Robinson; one aunt Ella Queen Stevenson; one uncle Eisha Reaves; two nieces Tonya Francis and La-Kisha Fizer; one great nephew Shawn Francis; two great nieces Chaise Francis and Brock Francis; one amazing friend Connie White; and a host of other family and friends.

“They say April showers bring May flowers but this is one storm we weren't prepared for. Maycell born March 4th 1953. At a time where segregation existed. African Americans were lifted.. to an all time high just to be broken down to the lowest low but she. Still. Shined. Nobody can ever truly fully imagine what life is like without their most prized possession until they lose it & while yes we lost a star, what's most important is that we gained a light. Showing us a way to heavens gate, floating through this life show us a figure 8 or infinity whichever way you see it but truth behind the pain is that she is never leaving. She lives through all of us, as we live for her. Life is like a river flowing, we're just catching up. But don't worry Marcy, we'll be there soon. Catching up on old times, & singing old tunes laughs but her statement was very clear. Before she departed, she left a message saying always persevere. Don't let these pressures of this world bring you down, bc after this life we live we got another round. But this ones much easier; no more pain, no more stressing, & no more loss. This one is the true definition of freedom, limitless ness, & most importantly God.”

I wrote this for your funeral but wasn't strong enough to speak it. I went to your grave sight months later and was able to read it to you there. But I want this piece to be in the Universe forever along with your beautiful spirit. I miss you everyday grandma but I know you're looking down on us. I love you<3

Until we meet again,
Your oldest granddaughter- Tionna

“Although my heart is extremely heavy I take comfort in knowing that you are finally pain free, resting comfortably with Our Lord And Savior and I know My Mother met and welcomed you at heavens gates with open arms... Oh what a reunion that must've been!!! I will certainly miss you're BEAUTIFUL smile, bubbly personality and always ready to get your dance on spirit I know we will meet again. Until that time comes, hug My Mommy tight, watch over us, know you will FOREVER be my FAVORITE Aunt and keep giving us signs from heaven.

Love You're Niece,

Kisha
