

Philip W. Shearrill Jr.

July 19, 1959 - July 6, 2020

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:
Ecclesiastes 3:1

Philip W. Shearrill, Jr. Known to his family and friends as “Junior or Jimmy Joe,” was born to the late Philip and Montine Shearrill, on July 19, 1959 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was preceded in death by his sister, Alisa Renee. Phillip suddenly entered into eternal rest on July 6, 2020 at 3:26 p.m.

Phil was educated in Baltimore City Schools, where he graduated from Paterson High School in 1979, and then attended Morgan State College.

Phil joined the United States Army Reserves in 1983, and then he joined the US Air Force in 1984. He also served on the US Presidential Honor Guard in 1986.

He accepted Christ in 1977 and became a member of the Galilee Baptist Church under the pastorate of Rev. Shirley Ranson.

In 1979, a son, Dwayne Jefferson was born.

Philip met and married the love of his life, Cynthia E. Dutton on September 7, 1985.

From this union came two children; Christina A. Shearrill and Philip W. Shearrill, III.

Phil was a devoted Father and faithful husband who loved and provided for his family’s every need. Phil loved his grandchildren and enjoyed being with his family. He was very social and a true friend to everyone he met. He loved playing Chess and enjoyed Sports of all kinds and he loved Cindy’s cakes.

Phil worked for the Maryland MTA Department of Transportation as a Bus Operator for over 20 years.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his beloved wife of over 34 years, Cynthia; two sons, Dwayne; and Philip, III; a daughter, Christina; a brother, Mark, (Verneice); sister, Michelle, Sisters-in-law, Darlene (Von); Crystal (Mark); Jackie; Brothers-in-law, Leo (Vindetta); and Donald; 5 Grandchildren: Dwayne, Da’Naeyah, Kimora, Fatima, and Yasin; and 1 Uncle, Rev. Douglas Wilson, (Violia); a lifetime best friend, Darryl Wright; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing

“ I've been struggling all week on what to say about Junior passing. I've always only called him that name. I'll start by saying I'm sorry I haven't been a part of your life for years and really gotten to know the man you became and the family you built with Cindy. I have always been proud of the man I heard over the years you had become. When I think of you I always remember first that big infectious smile on your face. You were like a younger brother who I did everything with growing up. We played all sports together, all card games, board games, street games, schoolyard games, travels exploring close-by neighborhoods. I can't remember any of my childhood that you are not part of with me. You, Douglas and I were inseparable in so much that we did. There is no way I cannot be thankful for our brotherhood growing up because that has been a part of my being the man I am today and the quality of my current friendships and new family bonds in my life. I have ours as a model to emulate.

I can't separate any specific stories to tell here because you're in all of my memories and that warms my heart and always has. Rest in Peace and know I have never, ever forgotten our special bond. Thank You for being a part of my life.

“ I am deeply saddened by the loss of my cousin Junior. My heart goes out to Cynthia, his wife, his children, and to Douglas, Mark, and Michelle. I was lucky, and privileged enough to talk to him, when he was recuperating in the hospital, following his heart attack. It had been years since we last spoke, but we, sort of, picked up right where we left off, like a long time had not passed. Even in his pain, and, I assume sorrow and fear of what might happen next, he was friendly, warm, and funny. I could feel that good energy he radiated, right through the phone. We talked about our lives and about chess. When we were kids, we played chess. I had played for awhile and he was new to the game. I always beat him. We worked on strategy, different chess positions, and what to do. After my family moved away from Baylis Street, we lost touch and saw each other, sporadically. One day, he wanted to play chess with me, and it took all my skill to beat him. He told me he played a lot of chess with Mr. Perkins, a teacher at the school he went to. The next time we played, he beat me. Boy, I was not happy about that. It was my ego kicking up a fuss, of course. Later on, as I got older, I began to understand that, our job is to help each other and inspire each other to do better, and try to leave our egos out of it. Hopefully, Junior went on to inspire and help others in this fashion. I believe he did, if our phone conversation was any indication. We are an amalgamation of our life experiences. I believe, helping others get better, not selfishly, was brought to my attention, because of Junior. It is easy to help others, when you always win, but it becomes very difficult to be magnanimous when you lose. I have gone on to help family, friends, co-workers with computer skills, Ping Ping, and many other things. I work very hard to leave my competitive nature and ego at the door. I do believe, my association with Junior made me a better person. I hope I did the same for him. He was taken from his family at much to young and age. The world is, decidedly dimmer without his presence.
