

Susie Lee McNair

February 3, 1935 - January 5, 2021

Let us celebrate the life of our loved one, Susie Ernestine (Lee) McNair, who transitioned to her heavenly home Tuesday, January 5, 2021. She was born on February 3, 1935 to the late William Wiggins Lee and Mary Hardy Lee in Littleton, NC.

Susie was educated in the Halifax County Public School System. She Attended Terrapin, Tabron and Goldmine Elementary Schools, and McIver High School all in Littleton, graduating from Eastman High in Enfield, NC. She also attended City College of Baltimore—now BCCC—where she studied nursing. She enjoyed school and singing in the school Glee Club throughout High School.

Susie was reared in a Christian home, where Christ was the head. She accepted Christ at an early age at Lee's Chapel Baptist Church. After moving to Baltimore, MD, she continued her spiritual journey at New Psalmist Baptist Church where she was a Charter member of the Division of Health Services Ministry. She enjoyed worshiping at church and attended faithfully until her health failed. She loved her Savior and was a prayer warrior. Her faith and God's mercy were evident in her life.

Susie met and married the late Jerome McNair. God blessed this union with five wonderful children.

Susie started her career at Johns Hopkins and Sinai Hospitals as a nursing assistant. For the bulk of her career—more than thirty years—she worked at Spring Grove Hospital in Catonsville, MD, from which she retired. Her coworkers and supervisors remembered her as a dedicated and hard worker.

When you hear the phrase, "Home is where the heart is," be assured that Susie comes to mind. She was kind and loving to everyone.

She was a confident and generous person who loved helping family and friends. She had a quick wit, and she would “pull you up,” if you “monk “with her. She did not put up with foolishness; and she did not take any “ham sandwich”, as she would say.

Oh, how Susie passionately loved her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. She was a strong, protective, and devoted mother, grandmother, and great – grandmother. She continued to be very close to her children until the end of her life. She talked to them every day, to check to see if they were alright; and was very often seen with them, especially her daughter Glenda. She also enjoyed talking to her sisters, her close friends, and neighbors.

Susie and her family were all excellent dancers and we often got fine entertainment. Oh, what a show. She was an avid Raven’s fan—always dressed in her Raven’s attire and faithfully routing them on every game. She also liked to watch “The Voice” and her religious shows. Listening to her favorite religious recordings as also a great passion for her.

Susie loved her entire family clan and every year looked forward to the Hardy Family Reunion. She will be remembered for all the love and happiness that she brought into our lives.

The Christian example that Susie set will be with us always. She cherished her long-standing membership with the New Psalmist Baptist Church and found great joy over the many years, fellow shipping within the church until she was unable to physically attend. She continued her fellowship with the numerous church ministers who visited her frequently at her home. Her light truly did shine.

She leaves to cherish her memory and celebrate her life two remaining children, Dr. Glenda Mosley of Woodstock, MD and Jerome McNair, Jr. (Tammi) of San Antonio, TX. She was predeceased by sons, Michael and Kenneth, and daughter Vicky. Her four grandchildren – Larry Mosley, Shanika Pringle, LaKendra McNair, Esquire McNair (Nikki), four great grandchildren – Kaniya, Brandon, Cayden, and Mackenzie will also cherish her memory. Her spirit will live on through her sisters – Bernice Robinson, Mable Palmer (Elvin), and Etoile de Hawkins (Vernon). She was predeceased by her sisters—Maggie Johnson, Saluda Williams, and Elizabeth Moore and a special niece, Doris Haley. Susie’s memory will also be cherished by her sisters-in-law, Flora, Laverne, and Thelma (Roosevelt), brother-in-law, Wesley, and Curtis McNair, and special friends, Emma Goines, Hattie Ward, and Ms. Powell, nieces and nephews and a host of devoted relatives and friends. May she rest in eternal peace.

“Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted.” (Matthew 5:4)

“ Susie McNair, treated me just like a son. The inspiration, her words of strength and well being blessed me as her wonderful sons did, Jerome and Mike. Mom has raised a great family of children. Well done. Now the Lord Most high has received her soul/spirit into his kingdom and new Jerusalem in heavenly places in Christ Jesus.

“ Ms McNair became a mother figure to me after my mother passed in 1996, we shared the love of cooking and ravens football. She always had advice whether it was solicited or not but it was always welcome. She had a way of getting her point across, but that's ok, because she was susie dean, lol. I will miss her dearly but will forever carry her in my heart

“ "Aunt Susie", as I affectionately called her, and my Mother Myrtle Hunt's best friend will be greatly missed. She was always easy to talk to, and would give her opinion. How fortunate to have had the opportunity to know and to love her. The way she touched our hearts can never be erased. Our deepest sympathy to the family. We are praying for the promise of God's peace in the midst of your grief, and the assurance of his love in the midst of your loss.

“ To the family of Susie McNair. I have such fond memories of meeting and getting to know Mrs. McNair. I was a high school freshman with a mad crush on her son Kenneth. I was relentless in my pursuit. It brings a smile to my face. I recall my first visit to her home as she stood outside on the steps, hand on hip looking me up and done with a smirk that said it all as she began her questioning.

Kenny was my first love and I gave birth to his daughter LaKendra in 1977. She carries the McNair name. Through the years I came to love Ms. Sue Dean as her sisters called her, and each of her children. Her home was like my second and she welcomed me with open arms once I got past the initial mama bear scrutiny. Not only do I have fond memories of spending time in her home, but that of time spent with the extended family.

You all are in my thoughts and prayers as we say farewell. I will always embrace the fond memories of my time spent with her.

Much Love

Cynthia

“ Glenda, losing a mother is an incomparable pain. No words can perfectly justify the condolences for the loss of a mother. A mother doesn't only just give birth. She raises you, gives you all her love, invests all her resources and dreams in you, and keeps you protected from the darkness of the world. She turns a house into a home and fills it with unconditional love. Her warm hugs, sweet kisses, and even her scolding have love hidden in them.

I will always remember your mother as the strong, confident, happy, generous, and beautiful woman she was! She is now among the angels above.
