

Andrew Suggs Jr.

November 7, 1965 - December 26, 2024

Andrew Suggs Jr. entered the world on Sunday, November 7, 1965. He was the beloved firstborn child and only son of Andrew Sr. and Courtney Taylor Suggs. He entered into heavenly rest on Thursday, December 26, 2024, after a brief illness. Andrew was loved, cherished, and deeply respected by all who knew him.

As a Son

Andrew was a quiet and unassuming child. He was a great son- very respectful, always thinking of his mother first, and was a student in his father's Sunday School class at Morning Star Baptist Church of Catonsville. In school, Andrew was a good student, and I used to love doing his school projects with him. Andrew also enjoyed riding his motorcycle when he was young. As a teen, Andrew played both tuba and trombone in addition to playing football at Landsdowne High School, where we attended many of his games. Although he excelled in his studies at UMBC, he didn't go to his college graduation because in typical Andrew fashion, he didn't like being the center of attention. From time to time, he also visited Florida for vacations and while he enjoyed those trips, he was very much a family man and enjoyed being close to the family.

"He was an attentive son who took excellent care of both of us." Ms. Courtney and Mr. Andrew Suggs, Sr., Parents

As a Brother

Andrew was my hero. I loved having a big brother. I was so proud to have a big brother, and from the day I was born, I adored him. We loved our family road trips and shared a special love for 'old school' R&B and hip-hop music. His impact on my life is as inexpressible as my pain. He was my first friend. First playmate. First teaser. First protector. My big brother.

"He was everything a big brother should be. That's exactly what he was, and in my heart will always be." Bishop Lisa M. Weah, D.Min., Sister

As An Uncle

Uncle Andrew was one of the most brilliant and noble uncles any niece could dream of. He carried the weight for everyone in our family, spoiling everyone and never once complaining. I truly admired his work ethic. As a child, I spent many days watching movies at his house or getting help with my homework. His generosity knew no bounds, and he doted on my children as well. Uncle Andrew was one of the most consistent and influential male figures in my life. I will miss his laugh the most.

"There will be a large void in my heart from losing him, but I know he is not lost- he is waiting for me at the end, and I will see him there." Courtney C. Dar-Height, niece

Uncle Andrew always prioritized everyone over himself. He was very tech savvy, always willing to help. I truly admired his work ethic.

"He always put his family first." Robert A. Kelly, Jr., nephew

As A Coworker and A Friend

Andrew was a kind and gifted coworker. There was nothing he wouldn't do to solve a computer problem, day or night - he was always accessible, never making anyone feel they were asking too much. He was always ready and willing to help, in his quiet and unassuming way. All of us relied on him to keep us up and running; his helpfulness, expertise, and positivity were something we could depend on every day, and the court will not be the same without him.

“I miss Andrew and think of him every day. He was not just a coworker; he was a friend --to us all.” Linda Ferren, coworker

I will miss all the wonderful talks and stories we shared about work and our families.

My heartfelt condolences go out to the Suggs family during this time of sorrow. He loved and talked about you all so much. His nephew became his pride and joy when he was born. Family meant everything to him, and I admired how close you all were. I will miss all the wonderful talks and stories we shared about work and our families. He was one of my best co-worker/friends, and the kindest, humblest, and most selfless person you could ever meet. He was very knowledgeable in the IT area and didn't mind showing or sharing his skills with others. So many judges, staff, and others relied on him, and he was always right there for anyone who needed his expertise. I called him "Mr. Fix It". I admired his professional expertise and learned so much from him. I particularly treasure the times when we had the opportunity to do remote Court at many colleges within the DC area, setting up laptops and sound systems as a way to stream remote Court to the public. The Courts meant everything to him, as well, and he absolutely gave 1000 percent on his job. There is not enough paper in the world to even begin to write a tribute for him, but no one deserves it more.

“I will miss you, my friend.” Patricia Wilmore, former coworker and friend

Andrew was preceded in death by a most beloved niece, Ms. Cayla Michele Kelly. He is survived by his parents, Andrew Sr. and Courtney Taylor Suggs; one sister, Bishop Lisa Michele Weah; one niece, Mrs. Courtney Ciara Dar-Height (Rico); one nephew, Mr. Robert Anthony Kelly, Jr.; one great-nephew, Josiah Eli Dar-Height; one great-niece, Lisa Tanya Dar-Height; a host of beloved cousins, and other relatives and friends.

The family would like to acknowledge his lifelong Halethorpe friends, and his “court family” at the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, D.C. Circuit, especially the automation team, with whom he worked most closely.

The family would also like to acknowledge, with deep appreciation, the many kind expressions of love and concern extended to them during this time of bereavement. We also would like to express our heartfelt appreciation for the New Bethlehem Baptist Church family, as the many thoughts, prayers, shared memories, cards, gifts of food and service, and words of condolence mean so much to us as we mourn his loss. We would also especially like to thank the March Funeral Home and its staff their support, professionalism, and caring arrangements. Andrew will be greatly missed.

“ First of all I would like to extend my deepest sympathies and condolences to the family during this time.

Andrew was known as Uncle Suggs at the Court of Appeals. He was reliable, helpful, diligent, knowledgeable, genuine, sincere, and kind. I call him Uncle because he was always ready to listen and impart fatherly wisdom, during our many therapeutic, lengthy, and eye opening conversations. He was my trusted coworker, confidant, and most importantly, my friend.

I would like to share a video with you. In the video you will see a large number of boxes with no real special significance. Contained inside the boxes are over 400 computers monitors that the court ordered, in an effort to modernize our current tech inventory. I won't elaborate about the monumental task and effort the team engaged in that day, in safely transporting 12 pallets of heavy IT equipment inside a small, crowded storage room without causing any damage. Needless to say we got the job done and Andrew was remarkable and spectacular in that moment, especially considering his declining health circumstances. We could visibly see from the constant shortnesses of breath, that there was something challenging Andrew. And because Andrew was extremely private, we didn't quite know or understand how serious those health challenges were. Andrew, being completely selfless and altruistic, gave one hundred and ten percent and lead the team in achieving this notable accomplishment.

These boxes may seem like nothing spectacular to the visible eye. But deep down below the surface, demonstrates the faithfulness, commitment, dedication, and diligence that Andrew exhibited everyday at work. Even during the worst of circumstances, Andrew displayed supernatural unwavering commitment.

In closing, Uncle Andrew, you will forever be missed. God bless you and your lovely family. May you rest in perfect harmony. Farewell dear Uncle until we meet again.

With Gratitude & Love,
