

Delores V. Brown

August 13, 1930 - October 31, 2023

DELORES VENITA OWINGS BROWN was born on August 13, 1930, in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Grant Sr. and Gladys Owings. She departed this life the early morning of October 31, 2023.

Delores attended Frederick Douglass High School and later graduated from Morgan State University.

On February 3, 1951, she married the love of her life, the late Andrew James Brown Sr. in Baltimore, MD. The Browns moved to Tioga Parkway and made their neighbors their friends. Delores brightened the Parkway with her love of gardening and the many flowers and shrubs that adorn her garden.

Delores spent her time volunteering at a florist in Mondawmin Shopping Center, assisting with the Baltimore Special Olympics, and actively engaging with the Tioga Neighborhood Watch.

She was also a substitute teacher at Lemmel Junior High School. Delores was a dedicated wife to Andrew Sr. and loving mother to her children. She is preceded in death by her late husband, Andrew James Brown Sr. who was her soul mate.

Delores cherished the relationship she had with her siblings who preceded her in death, Mary, Grant Jr., Melvin, Edward and Robert.

Delores leaves to cherish her memory: six children, Andrew Jr., Elmore, Rodney, Pamela, Jerome and Kenneth; son-in-law, Michael; four daughters-in-law, Johann, Grace, Andrea and Tanya; eleven grandchildren, Michael Jr., Maurice, Jennifer, Ayanna, Toure, Danielle, Dymond, Kwame, Devin, Brittany, Andrews III; great-grandchildren, and a host of relatives and friends. She will be sincerely missed by everyone who knows and loves her “ Sending love and light to you Kenny and Johann. Please accept my condolences for the loss of your Mother.

The compassion and dedication for which you displayed during Mo's most critical time will be rewarded. The two of you are a force to be reckoned with despite the challenges you faced alone. I am so proud of you. May God continue to bless you real good!
