

Julianna Elizabeth Watson

November 10, 1986 - October 27, 2024

JULIANNA ELIZABETH WATSON, daughter of Gary Lorenzo Watson and Catherine Dobson Watson, was born on November 10, 1986 in Baltimore County, Maryland. She departed her earthly life on October 27, 2024.

Julianna was the namesake of her two grandmothers – Julia Watson Silver and Anna Dobson. She shared her middle name with her maternal aunt, Mary Elizabeth Crawford and great-grandmother Mary Elizabeth Jones. Although Julianna shared the virtues of determination, dedication and strength with her aunt and grandmothers, she wanted her own identity, so she preferred the nickname, Julie.

Julie received her education in the Baltimore County Public School system, graduating with a certificate as a medical assistant. She attended Towson University completing course work for a bachelor's degree in Electronic Media and Film. Julie worked for 10 years at the Social Security Administration as an Earnings Benefit Technician. She took pride in her work and possessed a strong work ethic and commitment.

Julie was christened at the Mt. Pisgah CME Church when she was very young. Later she became a devoted member of Our Saviour Lutheran Church, serving faithfully for years as the church secretary. Julie loved to travel, especially cruising. She has traveled to many of the Caribbean Islands,

Canada, and Hawaii. Her love for comics was clearly demonstrated in her collection of comic books and her frequent participation in Comic-Con conventions.

Julie's greatest challenge was her health. She suffered several major illnesses, but kept pushing on. She did not give up!!

Julie leaves to cherish her memory: her parents; her brother, Sean and sister-in-law, Jaeah; grandmother, Julia Watson Silver; aunt, Mary E. Crawford; three uncles, Johnny (Theresa), Dennis (Christine), Donald (Lisa); niece, Alayah; two nephews, Ethan, Lorenzo; a host of cousins, other relatives, friends; and her cat, Logan.
