

Malik Isiaha Myers

May 16, 2000 - July 16, 2022

MALIK I. MYERS, the eldest great-grandchild, came into the world 5lbs. 7oz. playing and smiling on May 16, 2000 at 1:33 p.m. to Stacia Darden and the late Edward D'Angelo Myers. His life was cut short on early Saturday morning, July 16, 2022.

Malik was a man since he was 3 years old. His keen sense of information so young was captivating. He stole the attention and hearts of many.

Malik adored music at a very young age. From making beats to recording studio, he recorded his first album. Appearing in music videos and "Partying Like a Rock Star," Malik was living his dreams.

Malik earned his general education in both Baltimore City and County Schools. He later earned his diploma in February 2018 at Living Classrooms Fresh Start Program.

He leaves to mourn: his son, King Michael Kirby-Myers; daughter, Zymere Thompson- Myers; mother, Stacia; godmother, Unique; three brothers, Kareem, Deonte and Devon; two uncles, Ronnie and Travis; great-grandmother, Jean Isreal; two great- aunt, Sandra and Mary Darden; his great- uncle, Samuel Jr.; big cousin, Tricey; ten first cousins, Tony & Liyah, The Sandtown Community, The Family and his best friend Tyler. He is preceded in death by his father Edward D'Angelo Myers, grandfathers

Anthony and Ronnie Sr., and grandmothers Deborah and Donna.
