

Raquel Lynn Lewis

August 29, 1972 - December 17, 2021

Raquel Lynn Bland- Lewis departed this life and was called home on December 17, 2021. She was the second child of Cora E. Bland (preceded her in death) and Theodore R. Bland. Born on August 29th, 1972, in Baltimore MD. Raquel was educated in Baltimore City and attended Baltimore County Schools. She accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her personal savior at the age of 22 while attending Zoe Ministries in New York City. After moving back to Baltimore, she became a faithful member of Central Church of Christ. Raquel was baptized into Christ at Central Church of Christ several years prior to her mother's death (Sis. Cora Bland). She became very dedicated to the Central Church. She usually was in attendance regardless of the circumstances. Growing up, Raquel had many talents, she loved to dance (mimicking Janet Jackson videos). She was also a hair stylist, styling her sister Nicole's hair and many of her family and friends. Raquel moved to Queens, NY when she was 20 years old and met Perry Lewis. They were married in 1993 and out of this union three children were born. Quiana R. Lewis, Candice C. Lewis and her only son David M. Lewis (who preceded her in death at the young age of 8). Raquel adored her children, often taking them for outings and enjoying the beautiful scenery. As she got older, she would tap more into her creativity. Everyone loved her cooking. She was known for making one of the best sweet potato pies ever. She also loved to sew and made her own clothes. In her transition to the other side, she will be joining her mother, Cora E. Bland and her son David M. Lewis. Happy times and loving memories will be cherished by her children, her sisters and her father and all other relatives and friends. She leaves to mourn her dad, Theodore R. Bland and Jessie A. Bland; her daughters, Quiana Lewis and Candice Lewisher; sisters, Nicole Bland and Yvette Brown; her brothers, Tony, Anthony, Terry, and Lamont; nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives.
