“ I just found this obit of my dear friend and colleague. Ron was my go to person for career advice but we loved a good political chat too. He will be sorely missed. May you rest in peace, my friend.

“ The first time that I met Ron was my interview for a position working for him at Bozell's Alexandria, VA office. As I sat across from him in his office, I was distracted by the U.S. Capitol building which was at the center frame, directly behind him, through a glass wall, elevated, with the Potomac River in front. I said, "Wow, that view is amazing." He chuckled and said, "That and a Quarter will get you a cup of coffee." That was pure Ron, everything in perspective. His kindness and optimism were empowering and unforgettable and guide me to this day. Thinking about you, Joy.

“ *Ronnie had such a deep true love for his family and was a man of his word. He had a devoted admiration, respect, and love for his friends and colleagues. Now Ronnie rests high in a place we will all come to know. A life well-lived and a life for all eternity. May peace be with all of his family and for all who knew Ronnie. My deepest love and sympathy is with my extended family and most lovingly with my best friend Pat, Ronnie's sister. In faith I pray.

Ron was such an incredible human. we were neighbors for my whole entire youth. He was the sweetest person to walk by and have a chat with on the way to or from something in the area. He always greeted me with such gladness. As an adult when I would be back in town, I'd run into him on our street, maybe he'd be cleaning his car like he did like clock work, and we'd catch up for a long time. He was always so genuinely interested in my wellbeing we love you ron!

“ Dear Ron, You always were sunny and personable to everyone you knew (even strangers.) You were a dedicated husband, father, grandfather, friend, a serious professional in the advertising world and a brave proud service man. You helped your fellow neighbors in a way that really made me a better neighbor. Thank you for your caring friendship. You were always dignified, smartly dressed, and the mayor of our development. I was privileged for 35 some years to be your friend and neighbor. You will be missed. Peace and love to your beautiful family.

“ Ron always had a kind word to say, and a generous “hello” to my guide dog Cozmo. He was someone who instantly gained your trust so much so, that we always had him keep an eye on our place when we were gone. He made our community a safer place in which to live, and was always there to offer a helping hand or to check in on you. We loved our backyard conversations and really missed him when we left Baltimore. We’re so sorry to hear of his passing. Such a loss. Our sincere condolences to Joy and his family. “ I was lucky to have met and worked with Ron at LMO 2 decades ago. He was a great man and we kept in touch ever since. It was a blessing to have met him, to call him a friend and to have memories of him that will keep his spirit alive. May he rest in peace and my his lovely memory keep him alive in the hearts of family and friends.

“ You are forever remembered as a loving brother in law who was always quick to help out with a ride or words of encouragement to those in your family and others. You were a former US Army captain who served your country in war and peace with honor and valor. May you rest in peace and power. From Ed Henson

I worked with Ron (he in DC, me in Los Angeles) at Pulsar Advertising. His brilliance about the business, matched no other. He had a genuine interest in people, always wishing to help & offer guidance. I had just spoken to him, & his passing shocked us all. Rest in peace, Captain America. God surely welcomes you! My sincere condolences to his wife & family.
