

Rosita Theresa Mitchell

December 13, 1942 - February 10, 2025

A Time to Be Born:

We cherish the life of ROSITA MITCHELL, fondly remembered by friends and family as “Ro”. Rosita was born on December 13, 1942 in Baltimore, MD to the late Clarence and Audrey Carter. She was one of eight children, 6 of whom preceded in death.

A Time to Learn, A Time to Work:

Rosita received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools. She enjoyed working, assisting and developing young children. Rosita held various jobs in childcare as an assistant, working at Verizon Daycare, Shaw’s Bus Company and Carrera’s Daycare.

A Time to Love:

Rosita was united in marriage to Persel Mitchell on December 2, 1964. Persel preceded her in death on November 5, 1973. Rosita’s pride and joy were her daughter Donna, grandson Jamar and great-grandchildren Dorien and Je’Lynn.

Rosita was born and raised as a Catholic and accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior.

A Time to Die:

Rosita transitioned peacefully to be with the Lord on February 10, 2025 at Greater Baltimore Medical Center.

A Time to Heal:

Rosita leaves to celebrate her life and cherish her memory: her daughter, Donna Williams; grandson, Jamar Russell (Humaira); great-grandson, Dorien Russell; great-granddaughter, Je'Lynn Russell; brother, Clarence Carter Jr. (Jukey); sisters-in-law, Vivian Carter and Lavenia Carter; and a host of nieces, nephews and lifetime friends.

Her family wishes to send a special acknowledgement to her nephew Sean and nieces, Gelsel (Tee), Britty and Keah
