“ Our prayers are with you Cousin Betty. We will always remember Uncle Will's trips to Coatesville, Pennsylvania on his motorcycle. He always reminded me of Grandpa Henry as he got older. He had such a loving spirit and I loved hearing him sing. It seems like he never lost his southern accent or his connection to the Pleasant Grove area when I heard him speak. He will be missed. Cousin Donnie Miles (lineage of Alice Powe) sends his condolences.

“ The Legendary Uncle Will, will live forever in our hearts. Every time I see or hear a motorcycle it brings back memories of him driving from Baltimore MD to Wadesboro, NC or to Cheraw, SC, that was a sight to behold. He would give a ride to anyone big enough to hold. He was bigger than life and inspired you to want more out of life. He will never be forgotten. You have our deepest condolence and are in our Prayers.

God Bless,

Heirs of Jasper (Jack) and Lula Powe
